COOKIE LAW

Information about cookies

We use technical cookies on this website but links to other websites might use different types of cookies.

Here below you can find information about cookies and their use.

What are cookies?

A "Cookie" or tracer is an electronic file deposited on a terminal (computers, tablets, smartphones) and read when browsing a website, reading an email, installing or using software or a mobile application, whatever the type of terminal used.

By browsing this site, you agree to the use of cookies and other trackers. If you don't accept our use of cookies, you can turn off cookies in your browser settings.

All information collected will only be used to track the volume, type and configuration of traffic using this site, to develop its design and layout and for other administrative and planning purposes, and more generally to improve the service we provide to you.

For more information on the use, management and deletion of cookies for all browsers, we invite you to consult the following link All About Cookies <http://www.allaboutcookies.org/>

Types of cookies

According to their characteristics and their usage, cookies can be divided in different categories:

Technical cookies

These are used for the sole purpose of “transmitting communications to an electronic communication network, or to the extent strictly necessary for the provision of a service by the information company explicitly requested by the contracting party or the user in order to provide the said service” (art. 122, paragraph 1, of the Personal Data Protection Code). These are not used for any ulterior purposes and they are normally installed directly by the owner or the manager of the website (so-called “proprietary” or “editorial” cookies). These can be divided into:

- browsing or session cookies which guarantee normal navigation and use of the website (making it possible for example, to make purchases or be authenticated in order to access reserved areas);
- analytics cookies , assimilated by the technical cookies where they are used directly by the manager of the website to collect information, in an associated form (anonymous), about the number of users and the manner in which they visit the website;
- functional cookies , that allow the user to navigate in relation to a series of select criteria (for example, the language or the products selected for purchase) in order to improve the service provided. The prior consent of the user is not requested in order to install these cookies.

The only obligation is to inform the user, in any way (this information, for example).

Profiling cookies

These are used to create profiles of the users and are employed for sending advertising messages according to the preferences shown by the same during their online navigation. Due to their particular invasiveness with regard to the users’ private sphere, European and Italian regulations require that users be adequately informed about the use of the same and are thus required to express their valid consent

This website does not directly use any profiling cookies

Third party cookies

Visiting this website you might receive cookies from websites managed by other organizations. For example Facebook, or Google Maps , or systems to visualize integrated multimedia content, like Youtube. These cookies are created and legible by domains external to the website and the data regarding them is kept by the third party.

Information collected in this way is regulated by the corresponding information policies. Here are some addresses you can refer to:

Facebook information: <https://www.facebook.com/help/cookies/>

Facebook (configuration): privacy section in your account

Youtube\Google+ information: <https://www.google.it/policies/privacy/partners/>

Youtube\Google+ (configuration): <https://www.google.it/intl/it/policies/technologies/managing/>

No cookies are used to transmit personal information. no persistent cookies are used to trace users. The use of session cookies (which are automatically cancelled at the end of the session) are never kept for longer than the time strictly necessary for using the website.

The session cookies used on this website do not consent to acquire users’ personal data

Google / Google Analytics

The website might include some components transmitted by Google Analytics, a traffic analysis service offered by Google, Inc. These cookies are used in order to monitor and improve the website performance. For further information please refer to:
<https://www.google.it/policies/privacy/partners/>

If you do not want your data collected with Google Analytics, you can opt out by installing the Google Analytics opt-out browser add-on at the following address

Google Services

This data collection is subject to Google privacy law: <https://policies.google.com/privacy?hl=it> .

Analytics

This website uses Analytics services from Google LLC. Google Analytics uses "cookies", which are stored on your computer, to help the website analyze how users use the site during their visit. The collected data (including your truncated IP address) is transmitted and stored on a server controlled by Google, located in the United States.

Google will use this information about your use of the website to generate reports on website activity for website operators and to provide other services relating to website activity and internet usage. Google will not link the IP address provided by your browser in Google Analytics to any other Google data.

Google will retain user and event data for 26 months.

You can deactivate the installation and use of Cookies by simply setting up your web browser. However, you will not be able to access all the functions of the site in an optimal way. If you wish to prevent the storage of personal data (including your IP address) and their use by Google, you can install the plugin: <https://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout>

For more information, please see the terms of use <https://www.google.com/analytics/terms/us.html> and the privacy policy <https://support.google.com/analytics/answer/6004245?hl=en> of Google Analytics.

Cookies duration

Some cookies (session cookies) are only active until the browser is shut down or the user is logged out. Others survive longer and are available at the user's following visits. These cookies are called persistent and their duration is fixed by the server when they are created. Sometimes they have an expiry date, sometimes their duration has no limit.

Dealing with cookies

You can decide whether you want to accept cookies using your browser web settings. Pay attention: totally or partially disabling technical cookies could result in website malfunction. Disabling third party cookies does not compromise your surfing.

Browsers make it possible to define different settings for proprietary and third party. For the configuration of the special settings of the various browsers, please consult their relevant support pages;
